POSITION DESCRIPTION

Deputy Education Team Leader

A. COUNTRY BACKGROUND

Mali, ranked 173rd out of 177 countries according to the UNDP's 2007 Human Development Index, has a rapidly growing population of children and youth, but an education system incapable of producing the human capacity necessary to generate sustainable long-term economic and social development. After two decades of near stagnation in the 1970s and 1980s, Mali is currently on a better track to increasing education supply. Since 1990, the Gross Enrollment Rate (GER) has almost tripled, from 26.5% in 1990 to 77.6% in 2007. However, growth in primary school admission and enrollment rates has not been matched by comparable increases in student retention through Grade 6, and inefficiencies in terms of high repetition rates and poor quality of education leave the majority of Malians without the basic skills they need to find employment. Mali's education system is also marked by striking regional, rural/urban, socio-economic, and gender equity disparities. International objectives such as Education for All, the Millennium Development Goals, and the Fast Track Initiative cannot be met without addressing these disparities, and working to ensure that children who complete primary school have achieved lifelong literacy by Grade 6. While data is limited, various sources indicate that the poor quality of education in Mali is a primary factor in the country's strikingly low literacy rates. The most recent comparative data on education quality in Mali comes from the 2002 Programme d'Analyse des Systèmes Educatifs de la CONFEMEN (PASEC) surveys, which compared student performance between Francophone countries. Testing of students in Grades 2 and 5 indicated that Malian students perform significantly below the mean for comparable Francophone countries. To address these issues, USAID/Mali supports the Ministry of Education in implementing their ten year education strategy (PRODEC) and Education Sector Investment Program (PISE) through a basic education program focused on the objective to "expand access to quality education, with an emphasis on achieving lifelong literacy in Mali."

B. BASIC FUNCTION OF POSITION

The Deputy Education Team Leader will provide senior-level management and technical support to the USAID/Mali's Education Team Leader and to the education team. The Deputy Team Leader will work closely with the Team Leader to manage the Mission's program objective in basic education: "to expand access to quality basic education, with an emphasis on achieving lifelong literacy in Mali." With an annual budget of $10 to $17 million, USAID's education program focuses on promoting the quality of instruction and education decentralization in Mali. In 2008, the Mission launched the "Road to Reading" or PHARE program, a five-year, $30 million contract to improve the quality of instruction in Grades 1-6 through policy development, reinforced teacher supervision and support structures, pre-service and in-service teacher training, Interactive Radio Instruction, the creation of instructional materials, student assessment, the development of instructional models better suited to rural and nomadic populations, and the provision of educational opportunities to children with special needs. The ongoing "Regional Action Planning/Decision-Making" program promotes improved education system planning and management. It is anticipated that in early 2009 the Mission will launch a new five-year program focused on expanding access to quality basic education through decentralization of the education system. The Deputy Team Leader will serve as a senior manager and technical advisor for all aspects of the Mission's education program, supporting the Team Leader in ensuring that the USAID meets the highest standards of professionalism, efficiency, and quality in working with the Ministry of Education and other donors to achieve planned results.

The following are basic functions for the position:

1. Program Management (40%)

The Deputy Education Team Leader will work collaboratively with the Team Leader and have partial or full responsibility for many of the essential components of the management of USAID/Mali's basic education program. These will include providing leadership and structure to the process of programming of USAID's $10-$17 million annual education budget in accordance with Agency guidance and procedures. The Deputy Team Leader will work closely with the Team Leader to design, manage, and report upon a complex portfolio of contacts and grants. S/he will provide technical expertise to the team on program strategy, design, and impact analysis. Core management tasks will include developing an annual Operational Plan, obligating funds into bilateral agreements with the GRM, conducting periodic programmatic and financial Portfolio Implementation Reviews (PIRs), maintaining a Performance Monitoring Plan (PMP), and submitting an annual Performance Report to USAID/Washington. The Deputy Team Leader will support the implementation of an effective management schedule for the oversight of USAID/Mali's education contracts and grants, including regular meetings with implementing partners, reviews of their Quarterly and Annual Reports, and monitoring and evaluation site visits. The Deputy Team Leader will be one of the key technical writers on the team, expected to draft various strategic, briefing, procurement, and reporting documents. S/he will serve as the second point of contact for all communications (after the Team Leader) with senior State Department and Mission management, with the Ministry of Education and other donors, and with USAID/Washington regarding all aspects of program management.

2. Team Management (15%)

The Deputy Education Team Leader will work in close collaboration with the Team Leader to provide overall orientation, guidance and vision to the personnel of the USAID/Mali education team. This will include working with the Team Leader to establish annual and monthly workplans, allocate team roles and responsibilities for an effective coverage of ongoing and timely tasks, and engage in teambuilding or other interventions to ensure a productive working environment. The Deputy Team Leader will serve as the acting team leader in the absence of the Team Leader. In this capacity, s/he will periodically supervise the education team technical and support staff and oversee delegation of partner supervision and technical responsibility.

3. Management of Activity Implementation (30%)

The Deputy Education Team Leader will provide technical guidance to implementing partners to ensure sound management of basic education interventions. At the same time, s/he will ensure that USAID/Mali's basic education activities are complementary to efforts of other donors and the priorities of Mali's PRODEC and PISE programs. The Deputy Team Leader will provide oversight to contractors and grantees by serving as Cognizant Technical Officer (CTO) for selected implementing partners. As CTO, the incumbent will manage all administrative, technical, and financial aspects of these programs. S/he will closely track the Ministry's priorities for related technical areas, engage in dialogue on these priorities with the Ministry and other donors, and ensure that USAID programming contributes to the Malian government's long-term objectives for the education sector. The Deputy Team Leader will conduct regular site visits and progress reviews with the implementing partners' Key Personnel. S/he will verify and report on program impact at the level of the Ministry of Education and targeted beneficiaries. In addition, the Deputy Team Leader will contribute to the team's Development Outreach and Communications strategy by writing up program success stories and finding other ways to share information on USAID/Mali's education program with audiences in Mali and the United States.

4. Representation to the Ministry of Education, Other Donors and Stakeholders (15%)

The Deputy Education Team Leader, in coordination with other education team members, will establish and maintain collaborative relationships with a wide range of partners and stakeholders including central and decentralized levels of the Ministry of Education, other donors, and NGOs working to improve education in Mali. S/he will participate regularly in the Ministry's donor working group or Cadre Partenariale, and in the various working groups or Commissions Thematique that the Ministry uses to coordinate partner interventions. This may include providing support to joint Cadre Partenariale efforts, such as annual monitoring missions to assess progress made under PISE. The Deputy Team Leader will represent USAID in a variety of different official settings, including to senior levels of the Ministry of Education. S/he must demonstrate strong diplomatic and communication skills, and have previous experience working for bilateral organizations or international development programs as part of similar education sector reforms. In addition to USAID's work with the Ministry and other donors, the Mission is also frequently called upon to organize visits to, or demonstrate the impact of, our programs to other USG or interested stakeholders. The Deputy Team Leader will supervise the team's organization of high-level USG or other stakeholder visits to USAID's basic education programs.

C. SUPERVISORY CONTROLS

The Deputy Education Team Leader will work under the supervision of the Education Team Leader. It is anticipated that the Team Leader and the Deputy Team Leader will work collaboratively on many of the key management and programmatic responsibilities for the team. The position of Deputy Team Leader requires a high degree of professionalism, particularly when dealing with senior government and donor officials, the private sector, and international and local non-governmental agencies (NGOs). S/he will work with the Team Leader to structure the team's workload, including deadlines. Annual Work Objectives will be set in collaboration with the Team Leader, who will conduct semi-annual performance evaluations that incorporate feedback from USAID colleagues and implementing partners. The Deputy Team Leader must have excellent management and technical skills, along with the relevant experience, knowledge and skills to assume the duties outlined in this position description. S/he will provide leadership within USAID/Mali's Education Team and to the basic education sub-sector in Mali.

D. SUPERVISION/OVERSIGHT OF OTHERS

The Deputy Education Team Leader has no ongoing supervisory responsibilities but will serve as acting team leader for the education team in the absence of the Team Leader. In this instance, s/he will supervise education team technical and support staff and oversee implementing partner programs. S/he will work regularly with the education team's financial analyst and procurement specialist and with other technical and support teams in the Mission regarding specific policies, issues and implementing mechanisms affecting education. The Deputy Team Leader may represent USAID with the U.S. Embassy on special issues related to the education sector. S/he may assume the responsibilities of activity manager or Cognizant Technical Officer for one or more implementing mechanisms of the USAID/Mali education team. The assigned responsibilities will require the Deputy Team Leader to provide technical direction and management oversight, and require a high level of professionalism.

E. AVAILABLE GUIDELINES

The Deputy Education Team Leader will work according to the guidance provided by USAID's Automated Directive System (ADS) and CTO training manuals, as well as USAID/Mali Mission Orders and strategic plans. S/he must demonstrate ability to make sound judgments and take responsibility for representing the USAID Mission and on occasion the Embassy in front of the GRM, donors, and partners. S/he has no authority to make commitments on behalf of the U.S. Government.
