QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

1. QUESTION - The solicitation states that all equipment components and functionalities must be NMCI certified at time of award (10.1). Does the Government really want all equipment, networked and non-networked, to be NMCI certified?

RESPONSE - No, only networked equipment must be certified to operate on the NMCI network (refer to para. 10.1 of Amendment A00002). Standalone (non-networked) devices do not have to be NMCI certified. The estimated quantities can be found in Amendment A00002, page F-3.
