RFP No. 15-100-SOL-00015
Advanced Development of Broad-Spectrum Influenza Monoclonal Antibodies
Questions and Responses
No.	Question	Response	Solicitation Revision
1	Are studies in uncomplicated influenza outside the scope for the RFP?	If the US FDA requires that an uncomplicated influenza study is completed before the drug can be administered to the severely ill, hospitalized population, then the study is within scope.	No
2	The RFP states the technical proposal is limited at 100 pages, but Attachment 2 states it's limited to 50 pages. Please clarify	The correct page limit is 100.	No
3	Just to clarify-should I decide to apply to this contract, I won't be able to apply to the BAA later (and discuss the project before the application to the BAA with Tech Watch) on for the same topic.	Your submission of a proposal for this RFP does not have an impact on future submissions to the BAA. However, since the RFP for this requirement has already been issued, you are only allowed to discuss questions relative to it with the Contracting Officer. You cannot discuss with the Program Office.	No
4	i was wondering about the following: in case of submission to the HHS-BARDA-15-100-SOL-0015, can the applicant still approach the BARDA flu BAA and meet with the Tech Watch? Also, since HHS-BARDA-15-100-SOL-0015 has one deadline, is it also advisable to meet with the Tech Watch beforehand (as in case of BARDA BAAs)?	If you decide to attend a Tech Watch it cannot be to discuss, in any way, the Development of Broad-Spectrum Influenza Monoclonal Antibody candidates. Neither can the Tech Watch be related.	No
